

I'm going home
Text o musik: MaxB 2013

Im going home
I'm going home to my family Im going home to where we used to be when it was you and me

Home
Im going home
holes in my confidence I'm going home to where the trees grow tall I've been walking since I don't know when Now that I've seen it all
And I'm a long way from home
I'm a long way from home

Now I need to hear your voice
I need to hear your voice
just one more time
back where the trees grow tall Look into your eyes,
now that Ive seen it all
#feel the warmth of your smile
I hear your voice calling me

How can I keep moving on How can I keep moving on
if I don't know you're there I whanna see my family
If I'm not sure you want back home where we used to be to see me anymore

Time is nomore on my side - already a lifetime gone Mississippi, Kentucky, Florida keys
And I know I must keep focus all the way I've seen it all There's always someone holding back on me and it didnt give me peace Long, lonely roads
I'm on an amtrac train lie waiting ahead of me running through the night so many fears will be chasing me I'm on my way home on my way back to you Im going home to where we used to be (I miss you babe)

Now I need to hear your voice
I whanna get home to my family
Look into your eyes, home to where we used to be
when it was you and me - you and me babe
